We are Looking for old Barn Wood

I love you, LORD, my strength. The LORD is my rock, my fortress and my deliverer; my God is my rock, in whom I take refuge, my shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold.

Psalms 18: 1-2

Sermon Notes:

THE OLD RUGGED CROSS

On a hill far away, stood an old rugged cross, the emblem of suffering and shame;
and I love that old cross, where the dearest and best for a world of lost sinners was slain.

So I'll cherish the old rugged cross, 'til my trophies at last I lay down,
I will cling to the old rugged cross, and exchange it some day for a crown.

O, that old rugged cross, so despised by the world, has a wondrous attraction for me;
for the dear Lamb of God left His glory above to bear it to dark Calvary.

Chorus

On the old rugged cross, stained with blood so divine, a wondrous beauty to see;
For it was on that old cross Jesus suffered and died to pardon and sanctify me.

Chorus

To the old rugged cross I will ever be true. It's shame and reproach gladly bear.
Then He'll call me someday to my home faraway, where His glory forever I'll share.

Chorus

LEANING ON THE EVERLASTING ARMS

What a fellowship, what a joy divine.

Leaning on the everlasting arms.

What a blessedness, what a peace is mine

Leaning on the everlasting arms.

Leaning, leaning, safe and secure from all alarms.

Leaning, leaning, leaning on the everlasting arms.

Oh, how sweet to walk, in the pilgrim way.

Leaning on the everlasting arms.

Oh, how bright the path, grows from day to day.

Leaning on the everlasting arms.

Chorus

What have I to dread, what have I to fear

Leaning on the everlasting arms.

I have blessed peace, with my Lord so near,

Leaning on the everlasting arms. Chorus
